Around the World in 30 Days: Travellers Tales

This course is designed to share the pleasure of reading travellers' tales, both modern and old, followed by discussion. Both the adventurous and armchair traveller can come together to discuss writers and their works - books, blogs, diaries, memoirs in a friendly, relaxed group. Each month a different country will be selected. Different writers will be chosen by the tutor, with particular books selected for class reading. For example, India is the country for the first session in March: selected writers are William Dalrymple, VS Naipaul, Paul Theroux, Vanessa Able and Sarah MacDonald. Books for discussion include William Dalrymple, City of Djinns: A Year In Delhi; VS Naipaul, An Area of Darkness; Paul Theroux, The Great Railway Bazaar; Vanessa Able, Never Mind the Bullocks: One Girl's 10,000 km Adventure around India in the World's Cheapest Car and Sarah MacDonald, Holy Cow. The class format will be book critiques followed by discussion. Future sessions will involve students' input in selection of countries and writers. Enthusiasm, a love of reading and discussion are the only requirements.

Prerequisites: Studied and/or interested in history and literature.

Class Materials: Buy, find second hand or borrow books from libraries.
